Description & Details

RCHS Development Director

The Rutland County Humane Society has been serving the animals and people of Rutland County, Vermont for more than 55 years. We offer a safe haven for people who, for a variety of reasons, need to surrender their pet. Working with Town Animal Control Officers (ACO's) and Local, County and State Law Enforcement officials, we house animals that are picked up and transported to the RCHS as strays on the street or have been abused and/or neglected, where they receive necessary veterinary care and love while waiting to be found by their owners or adopted. We have had a 100% spay/neuter policy for our animals for more than 25 years.

Our annual budget is approx. $600,000, of which $360,000 comes from donations and events.
