Our Mission

The Rutland County Humane Society is dedicated to advocating for and working towards a responsible and humane community. We provide shelter and adoption opportunities for pets who are homeless and promote animal welfare through community programs that benefit animals and people.

The RCHS is a non-profit organization serving the communities of Rutland County, VT. RCHS is governed by a local volunteer Board of Directors. We rely solely on donations, fees for services and fund raising to support our work. We also depend on volunteers who give their time and talents in support of the animals.

Camp Furry Friends 2014

*"I had a lot of fun.
I learned how I can make a difference!"*

-summer camper

For the third summer, the Rutland County Humane Society will offer a day camp for Rutland County children ages 8-11 who would like to learn more about shelter life and how to be a more responsible pet owner.

Camp will cover information on being a responsible pet owner, animal safety, careers with animals (with some special visitors from community members who work with animals), shelter tours! Arts and crafts will play a fun role in the learning process, too.

Each day will have four one-hour sessions with a break in between. So if you have an animal lover who wants to learn more about them, Camp Furry Friends will offer a fun and unique experience children can carry with them for a lifetime!
